PAY UP.

We hate these duns and we know our readers do. Those who have paid, and always do pay in advance, need give themselves no concern about it; and those who owe us from TWO to FOUR years we are exceedingly anxious that THEY should give themselves some concern, and give their immediate attention to this DUN. We need our money and must have it. We, therefore, expect all who owe us for two years, or more, to PAY UP BETWEEN THIS DATE AND THE FIRST OF AUGUST NEXT. It is now about the beginning of hay-making and harvest, when everybody young and old has money. Now, is the time to pay your printer's bill. Do not pay every other bill and forget us, simply because we are good natured and lenient.

If these bills are not punctually attended to by the 1st of August, we will then LOSE OUR GOOD NATURE for a time and place our bills against you, in the hands of a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE IN THE RESPECTIVE TOWNSHIPS IN THE COUNTY FOR COLLECTION. We repeat, that we need our money and must have it. We know that our patrons will heed this DUN, as they do not wish us to enter this campaign with our hands and our tonge tied.

THE strongest objection the Democracy now have to General Grant is his execution to the letter of the measures and policies advocated and sustained by Mr. Greeley.

READ the full and complete vindication of Gen. Hartranft on the inside of this paper. Even W. A. Wallace, that hard shell and prejudiced Democrat esteems him an honest official and a pure and upright man. Republicans close up the ranks, and organize for the October election.

GREELEY.—Horace Greeley, after fighting the Democracy for over 30 years, accepted from the Baltimore Convention, the nomination for President. The Democratic Convention swallowed both Horace and the Cincinnati platform. What a surrender on the part of the Democracy! How humiliating it must be to the honest masses of that party!! Even Buckalew approved of the bargain and sale. Farewell Democracy. Alas, Horace Greeley!!!

GRANT'S nepotism is humorously set forth in the following, from the Ogdensburg (N. Y.) Journal. It is a fair hit at the folly with which certain opposition journals continue to howl about Grant's regard for his relatives:

In view of all the facts we are compelled to admit that Grant has done a good deal for his friends. Take and give has characterized his whole conduct from the beginning of the war to the present moment. He commenced at Fort Donaldson, which he gave to his aunt Columbia. He gave Vicksburg to his uncle Samuel for a birthday present; Mission Ridge to his cousin Yankee Doodle, and Appomattox to brother Jonathan. In order to perpetrate this nepotism, he had to turn out Buckner, Pemberton, Beauregard, Bragg and Bob Lee. They all consider it an outrage, but it made no difference with Grant, for he did not stop as long as there was anything for him to take.

GRANT A CHRISTIAN.

The enemies of General Grant continue to slander him in every way and base their malignant libels upon the speech of Senator Sumner. Now, it is a well known fact that the Senator does not make a single charge against the President, which has not been refuted repeatedly, by Horace Greeley in the New York Tribune. These enemies harp loudly on what Sumner is pleased to term the crime of nepotism on the part of the President. Suppose, for the sake of the argument, we admit all the Senator says on this point. What does it prove? It proves General Grant a christian gentleman in the largest and fullest Biblical acceptation of the term. We copy from the 5th chapter and 8th verse of the "First Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to TIMOTHY: "But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, (household) he hath denied the faith and is worse than an INFIDEL."

MOTTOES FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

For the benefit of P. G. Meek and the balance of the Democratic party who will in all probability be whipped into the support of Horace Greeley for President since he has received, and accepted the nomination of the Democratic Convention at Baltimore, we furnish them with some of Mr. Greeley's choice sayings in regard to the character and standing of the Democratic party. These Liberal Republican-rebel-anti "nigger"-whiteman's party-mongrel Democratic leaders, will want some mottoes. Where can these be so appropriately found as in the writings of the standard bearer of the mongrel crew? It will afford us pleasure to furnish these "short, sharp and decisive" sayings, by Horace Greeley in his "Tribune," from time to time. They are very numerous. You need not anticipate any scarcity. Get your banners ready. Here are a few mottoes. Enough for one week. We can easily imagine how enthusiastic the "unterrified" will become when they behold the Banners containing these sentiments, or mottoes, furnished to order for them by their Democratic Candidate, Horace Greeley.

"Every one who chooses to live by pugilism or gambling or harlotry, with nearly every keeper of a tippling-house, is politically a Democrat."—Horace Greeley.

"If there were not a newspaper nor a common school in the country, the Democratic party would be far stronger than it is."—Horace Greeley.

"The essential articles of the Democratic creed [are] 'love rum and hate niggers.' The less one learns and knows, the more certain he is to vote the regular ticket from A to Izzard."—Horace Greeley.

"We thereupon asked our contemporary to state frankly whether the pugilists, blacklegs, thieves, burglars, keepers of dens of prostitution, etc., etc..... were not almost unanimously Democrats."—Horace Greeley.

"To smoke is a Democratic virtue; to chew is that virtue intensified; to drink rum is that virtue in the superlative."—Horace Greeley.

"A purely selfish interest attaches the lewd, ruffianly, criminal, and dangerous classes to the Democratic party."—Horace Greeley.

"The brain, the heart, the soul of the present Democratic party is the rebel element at the South, with its Northern allies and sympathisers. It is rebel at the core to-day.....It would come into power with the hate, the chagrin, the wrath, the mortification of ten bitter years to impel and guide its steps..... Whatever chastisment may be deserved by our national sins, we must hope that this disgrace and humiliation will be spared us."—Horace Greeley.

"All do know that there are several hundred thousand mulattoes in the country; and we persume that no one has any serious doubt that the fathers of at least nine-tenths of them are white Democrats. And we are told that those Democrats, if they will have yellow children, might better than otherwise treat the mothers respectively as wives after the laudable pattern of that eminent Democrat, Vice President Richard M. Johnson.—Horace Greeley, Dec. 10 1867.

I saw the other day a suggestion that I would probably be the best Democratic candidate to run against Gen. Grant for President. I thought that about the most absurd thing I ever heard or read. If the Democratic party were called up, on to decide between Grant and myself-I know that their regard for what they must call principle would induce nine-tenths of them to vote against me. Why? I am a decided enemy of that party, even in its most respectable aspects.—Horace Greeley.

Every youth who is learning to sip and soak in the grog-shops is being fashioned to the uses of sham Democracy. His virtuous parents may think otherwise-may be ignorant of his haunts and his habits; but if he is learning to love liquor and loose company he is being fashioned to the ends of the adversary. Hence the Democratic managers and oracles almost uniformly hate and revile the temperance reform, even when personally temperate. They know that its triumph is their damage, and probable defeat. There is not a State in the Union whereof the Democratic Party is not conspicuously hostile to whatever legislation tends to diminish the number or the power of the grog-shops.—Horace Greeley.

AS A SIGN of the times in these hot days, says the Pittsburg Commercial, we will just say that a county in Pennsylvania can be named now which usually gives rising one thousand Democratic majority, that will give a handsome majority for Grant over Greeley. And this is only a sample of a number of others. Nor do the considerable number of Democrats there, who refuse to be roped into the support of Greeley, intend, if they can help it, to permit the Greeleyites to obtain any such advantage as the election of Buckalew would give them. They regard the two as wearing the same label. It is an interesting phase just developing in our State canvass.

SIMON CAMERON.

The following brave words we find in the Germantown Telegraph. They have an air of manliness about them that is quite refreshing. As the Philadelphia Press has been so often quoting opinions concerning itself or its editor from "my dear old friend of the Telegraph," we hope it will make room for the following noble and just defense of one whose fidelity to Republican principles is worthy of emulation, and whose public record will compare favorably with the best acts of his calumniators. The Telegraph says:

"A concerted attack has been made from various quarters upon General Simon Cameron, that leaves no doubt whatever that this is part of a general and deep-laid scheme to change the whole complexion of the United States Senate in the interest of the free trade faction that has its headquarters in New York. It begins to be obvious that the leaders of the Democratic and so-called 'Liberal Republican' opposition really care much less about the chance of electing a President, than obtaining the control of the Senate for free trade and Democratic purposes. Several of the leading free trade organs make no secret of the matter, and therefore publish a list of the Senators who are to be chosen the winter ensuing, and direct attention to their secrets as the main object of the campaign.

"In such a contest we can feel no hesitation as to our course. We have no particular love for Simon Cameron. He is not our beau ideal of a statesman, but as the aim in striking at him seems pretty clearly to be to put an opposition Senator in his place, we warn all our friends to beware of falling into any snare on this subject. Simon Cameron may be a selfish man in some respects, but he is a most unselfish one in others. Those who are now parading extracts from Lamon's abominable Life of Lincoln, carefully showing how Mr. Cameron was turned out of the Cabinet, are extremely careful not to show how this same Simon Cameron returned good for evil, by getting the two houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature, with all their officers at their head, to renominate President Lincoln for re-election. We have a personal and positive knowledge that this was done by the influence of Simon Cameron.

"Nor do these newly fledged enemies of our Senator care to remember that Simon Cameron in his first report as Secretary of War advocated openly the enlistment and arming of colored troops and especially the slaves, and that Mr. Lincoln and his conservative associates objected to this radical passage and had it struck out. It is also quite convenient now to forget that Simon Cameron as Secretary of War raised, armed and equipped the first National Army of over six hundred thousand men ever put in the field. Perhaps these opponents of General Cameron do not know or care to know that when the first great call was made for troops Gen. Scott proposed to put them all in three great cantonments on the lakes to drill for three months, three or four dundred miles from the frontier, and that General Cameron as Secretary of War refused to consent, and his refusal prevented it. Yet we have this from a gentleman who was present at the interview.

"We say all this, and we could say very much more to the same effect, at the same time that we reiterate that we have not admired General Cameron. We know his errors and they are serious enough. But we do not believe in men who have never gone astray in any of their public acts. They are generally persons of feeble character, too much afraid of their good name to 'attack a bulrush unless the wind were in their favor.' As between Simon Cameron and the free trade faction who seek his political martyrdom, and as between him and the miserable tail end of a faction that rallies around Senator Sumner and attacks and vilifies all who were concerned in removing him from the position he disgraced at the head of the Foreign Relations Committee, we are clearly, unequivocally and decisively for Simon Cameron. If the Republican party must go down in defeat in Pennsylvania or rise with Cameron, we shall incontinently throw overboard all who make this a personal matter and go for the man who sustains the party that has done so much to preserve the Union one and inseparable."

THE Sunbury American says: "Personally we have a warm regard for Mr. Buckalew, but there is no disguising the fact that there is the strongest feeling against him in his own party, and some of whom will most persistently oppose him to the bitter end. One thing, however, is certain; the people will support the soldiers who saved the country, in preference to the men who sympathized with and aided armed treason and opposed the government when in peril. Judging from the coolness with which his nomination is received by the Democratic editors throughout the State, he will be the worst beaten candidate that has been presented by the Democracy for many years past."

I HAVE no policy of my own to interpose against the will of the people. —Grant's letter May 29, 1868.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF LIVERPOOL AND LONDON.

There are agents who spoil the best interests of their companies, and some companies, from their style of executive management, spoil the good services and best intentions of their agents. In the case of the Royal, there is and has always been the happiest accord, satisfactory understanding and harmonious co-operation and action existing between the chief executive officers and agents at home and in the remotest field of its enterprise. This has been pre-eminently the case with regard to the Company's experience in the United States. The introduction and perpetuation for so many years of this superior style of executive management is principally due to the eminent experience, skill and business tact of the late manager, Percy Dove, Esq., and, we are happy to add, his talented successor, John H. McLaren Esq., has followed the laudable example set by his worthy predecessor. The result of this good understanding and zealous co-operation between the executive staff and their subordinate agents, has raised the institution from the fourteenth or fifteenth in rank to be the second in the United Kingdom. The Royal has, indeed, made good its noble title in the highest acceptation of the term, at home and abroad, in its dealings with all classes and conditions of its policy-holders.

It is unnecessary here to speak of the worthy and much respected representative of the Royal at No. 56 Wall street, New York; he is too long and familiarly known to the readers of the Gazette, the mercantile and insurance fraternity, to require any complimentary allusions in this place; suffice it to say that we know of no representative of any other English company who has merited so justly the confidence, esteem, and respect of his contemporaries and associates in business, not merely by his uniform courteous and gentlemanly deportment, but by his promptitude, faithfulness, and zeal in carrying out every plan and proposal which has from time to time been introduced and adopted for the protection and improvement of the business. And we are pleased to add, that Mr. A. B. McDonald is not the only representative of the Royal concerning whom a similar statement may be said with propriety and justice. The agents at Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, San Francisco and Canada bear the same excellent reputation for fair and honorable dealing toward their business associates.

The Royal has now a paid-up cash capital and assets of $10,000,000; and since the fire in Chicago the Trustees of the New York Branch have deposited with the Department at Albany $375,000 in gold additional, making a total of assets now held for the security of policy-holders in the United States, amounting to the handsome sum of $1,300,000. The Royal has justly earned the favorable opinion and extensive patronage of the American public.—United States Insurance Gazette and Magazine, June, 1872.

For the REPUBLICAN.

PHILIPSBURG, PA., July 15th, 1872.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

DEAR SIR:—On Tuesday evening July 9th, a meeting of Republicans was held at the Railroad House in this place for the purpose of forming an organization for the approaching campaign. A club was organized and named "Grant and Wilson Club of Philipsburg." A committee was appointed to draft resolutions denouncing John W. Forney in the course he is pursuing in regard to part of our State Ticket, proceedings to be sent Col. W. W. Brown, Editor of Bellefonte REPUBLICAN for publication. Adjourned to meet at same place Saturday evening next.

Club met pursuant to adjournment. Committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the nominations of General Jno. F. Hartranft, for Governor of Pennsylvania, and General Harrison Allen, for Auditor General, and will give them and the whole ticket, our united support.

Resolved, That we most emphatically disapprove and denounce John W. Forney, in the course he is pursuing towards our State Ticket, and feel as though he should be drummed out of the party, as we can elect the whole State Ticket, and Grant and Wilson, not only without his aid, but in spite of his most violent and malicious opposition.

Potter's Hall secured for the meetings of the club, and one hundred wide awake lamps ordered to be made for the club. We have one hundred and two members enrolled and will increase it to one hundred and fifty.

Yours truly,

W. C. WAGNER, Sect'y.
W. C. MCCUTCHEON, Prest.

For the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 3rd, 1872.

As a matter of general interest to our Soldier Boys who have lost a leg or arm. I enclose herewith a circular issued by the Commissioner of Pensions in relation to an Act of Congress, approved on the 8th inst., which increases the pensions, of those now receiving pensions of $15, $20 and $25 per month, twenty per cent.

It will be seen from the circular that no attorney will be necessary, nor will any be recognized in getting the proper endorsement made upon their certificate, entitling them to the increase.

As there will be thousands of applications under the Act, and those sent by letter to the Pension Office, will be acted upon in regular order of business under the rule of "first come, first served." I will undertake, for such of our Centre county boys as may desire it, and will send their certificates to me, to have their cases made special; which I think I can have done without trouble, and I will return certificate, as soon as it receives the proper endorsement.

The weather is fearfully hot. For the past three days Mercury has stood at 93 in this building, and in a Drug Store, on 7th st., it has stood at 100 in the shade. There have been no cases of sun-stroke reported. The Georgetown Street Railroad Co., lost 12 horses yesterday, they having died from the effects of the heat. The small-pox is on the increase and is very bad in the Eastern portion of the city, on Capitol Hill, and the Navy Yard.

Yours, &c.,
R. B. KINNIE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
PENSION OFFICE, June 20, 1872.

The first section of an act supplemental to the several acts relating to pensions, approved June 6, 1866, provides—

* * "That from and after the passage of this act all persons by law entitled to a less pension than hereinafter specified, who, while in the military or naval service and in line of duty, shall have lost the sight of both eyes, or who shall have lost both hands, or been permanently and totally disabled as to render them utterly helpless, or so nearly so as to require the constant personal aid and attendance of another person, shall be entitled to a pension of twenty-five dollars per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost both feet, or one hand and one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to be incapacitated for performing any manual labor, but not so much so as to require constant personal aid and attention, shall be entitled to a pension of twenty dollars per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost one hand, or one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to render their inability to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or a foot, shall be entitled to a pension of fifteen dollars per month."

An act increasing the rates of pension to certain persons therein described, approved June 8, 1872, provides—

* * "That all persons entitled by law to a less pension than hereinafter specified, who, while in the military or naval service of the United States and in line of duty, shall have lost the sight of both eyes, or shall have lost both hands, or shall have lost both feet, or been permanently and totally disabled in the same, or otherwise so permanently and totally disabled as to render them utterly helpless, or so nearly so as to require the constant personal aid and attendance of another person, shall be entitled to a pension of thirty-one dollars and twenty-five cents per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to be incapacitated for performing any manual labor, but not so much as to require constant personal aid and attendance, shall be entitled to a pension of twenty-four dollars per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost one hand, or one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to render incapacity to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or foot, shall be entitled to a pension of eighteen dollars per month, from and after the fourth day of June, eighteen hundred and seventy-two."

Persons who are already pensioned under the former act at either of the rates of fifteen, twenty, or twenty-five dollars, are entitled to the increased rates provided by the latter act, and may secure such increase without the intervention of an attorney, nor will any attorneyship be recognized in such cases.

A letter from the pensioner (pensioned as above), addressed to this office, inclosing his present Pension Certificate, and giving his post office address, will be a sufficient presentation of his claim for the increase.

The certificates will receive such indorsement by this office as will authorize the payment of the increased rate, and will then be forwarded to the Pension Agency at which the pension is payable, and the pensioner will be notified of such transmission.

THE VOICE OF THE PRESS.

[From the Harrisburg Telegraph, July 3rd.]

EIGHTEENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Col. W. W. Brown, editor of the Bellefonte Republican, has been brought prominently forward by a brother editor, Mr. J. G. Kurtz, for nomination for Congress by the Republicans of the 18th district. Col. Brown has warm supporters, and is eminently qualified for the position in which his friends desire to place him; besides, Mr. Kurtz more than intimates that certain parties in whose favor Col. Brown withdrew when he was a candidate before the last Republican Convention, are bound by pledges then given to sustain him now. How this may be we do not know, but we may be permitted to say, without the slightest intention of interference in the selection of a Congressional candidate in the district, that Col. Brown is a good man and a sound Republican.

[From the Pittsburg Morning Mail, July 4th.]

The name of Col. W. W. Brown, editor of the Bellefonte Republican, is mentioned in connection with the Congressional nomination in the Eighteenth District. Col. Brown would be a very available candidate, as he has every qualification for an active and influential member of Congress. Politically he is well informed of the necessities of his district and of the State, and as a candidate he would be a powerful advocate of Republican principles, on the stump, as he would be in the forum. We would with pleasure congratulate the people of the Eighteenth district if they should be so fortunate as to secure Col. Brown for their representative in Congress.

[From the Lewisburg Chronicle, July 5th.]

J. G. Kurtz, Esq., in a forcible article in the Bellefonte Republican, urges the nomination of Col. W. W. Brown, as a candidate for Congress in the 18th district. Col. Brown has been a faithful worker in the Republican party for many years, and he would no doubt make a strong run as a candidate and a superior representative if elected.

[From the State Journal, July 6th.]

W. W. Brown, of the Bellefonte Republican, is spoken of as a probable candidate for Congress from the Eighteenth district. He is a deserving man and a fearless as well as an able advocate of Republican principles, which he has defended and sustained with much ability for many years. If nominated, Mr. Brown would make a dangerous rival for any man whom the Democracy could pit against him; and on account of his power on the stump, we would like to see our old friend made the standard bearer in his district.

WE clip the following sensible article from the Lewisburg Chronicle. Its remarks in regard to the Philadelphia Bulletin and Harrisburg Telegraph we most fully endorse:

"We learn that the subscription list in this place of your Philadelphia Press has been considerably reduced since that paper has turned its artillery upon the Republican party. Republicans are not generally given to ostracism, but they do not desire to be fed upon tainted milk—they want it either sweet or curdled—real Republican or undiluted Democratic doctrine—fish flesh or fowl, not rotten herring. The vacancy caused by the withdrawal of the Press subscriptions is being filled by the 'North American,' 'Bulletin,' and other unswerving Republican journals in Philadelphia.—This is right; and while it is just and proper to love our enemies, we are not required to love them more than we do our friends; we hope, therefore, that the above mentioned and other reliable Republican papers in Philadelphia may be well patronized. Should any prefer an inland daily, they can do no better than to patronize the Harrisburg 'Telegraph.' No political treason lurking in its columns; it is true and tried, and wields a vast influence on account of its straightforward, consistent course. Besides, it gives the news of the day as early and about as full as the New York and Philadelphia dailies. The 'Telegraph is furnished at the rate of $6,00 a year in advance. A large and excellent weekly edition is also published at $1,50 a year. Give the 'Telegraph' a trial."

The New Bedford (Mass.) Mercury shrewdly suspects that Mr. Sumner will find his recent philippic "the most egregious blunder of his life." Not a single Republican paper in Massachusetts, we believe, has said a word in extenuation of the blunder, which is everywhere considered, in the language of Talleyrand, "worse than a crime."

HARTRANFT'S COMPLETE VINDICATION.

The Whole Batch of Lies Nailed.

Senator Wallace, the Distinguished Democrat, Writes and Signs the Vindication.

"Look at the Official Documents."

In the State Senate, February 29th, Senator White offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, In the N. Y. Tribune of February 28, the following appears:

On the 19th of January, Mr. Cooper came into the House of Representatives, toward the close of the morning hour, and endeavored to bring before that body a resolution of inquiry, but before the purport of his resolution appeared, a well known leader of the "Third House" hurriedly went upon the floor, and immediately, by a movement known to the initiated as the "Harrisburg flurry," the session was broken up rather than adjourned. The resolution never was offered again, the matter, probably, having been "fixed:" but, as the movement above described is only resorted to in a case of emergency, a considerable inquiry was excited as to the objects aimed at. Events subsequently placed a copy of the resolution in your correspondent's hands; but though the allegations were important and specific, no authority was cited, and your correspondent awaited further developments. During the last ten days the two State officers mentioned in the resolution have been interesting themselves to procure the pardon of a certain young broker of Philadelphia, lately condemned for being connected with frauds on the Treasury of that city. Attention being attracted to the case, an investigation ensued, which seems to establish the propriety of making public the suppressed resolution. The portion relevant reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, John F. Hartranft, Auditor General, and Robert W. Mackey, State Treasurer, have been accused of illegally using moneys of the Commonwealth, in applying the same in carrying on various operations in stocks, to the extent of several millions of dollars, and to the payment of their private debts; and

"WHEREAS, The said State officers are further accused of having used the moneys of the Commonwealth in the purchase of the loans of the Commonwealth for their own benefit, particularly to the purchase of $9,500 of the five per cent. loan of the Commonwealth, and $31,650 of the six per cent. loan of the Commonwealth; and of having sold the said loans to the Sinking Fund of the Commonwealth at an advantage or profit to the said Mackey of $2,943 42, and of an advantage to the said Hartranft of $2,700; and

"WHEREAS, The said Mackey is further accused of having received, among other sums, the following payments as interest on the moneys of the Commonwealth loaned or deposited by him for or on account of such consideration, viz: On August 25, 1869, $677 50; on February 9, 1870, $347 50, and October 5, 1871, $5,000; therefore, be it

"Resolved, (the Senate concurring,) that a Joint Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives be appointed to inquire into the accusations aforesaid, and report, with authority to send for persons and papers.

"Mr. R. W. Mackey has just been re-elected State Treasurer, and Mr. John F. Hartranft is the expectant candidate for the Governor's chair. The Legislature reconvenes to-morrow, 28th, but owing to the sitting in Philadelphia of three committees, and also to the prevailing sickness, it is hardly probable a quorum will assemble on the first day. Governor Geary, who has been quite ill for several weeks, is recovering, and expected to be in Philadelphia to-day, but his physicians decided against his going."

AND WHEREAS, It is alleged by officers of the Commonwealth named therein that said resolution was devised with the intent to compel said officers to compromise the claim of the Commonwealth against George O. Evans; and whereas, said officers request an investigation thereof.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Speaker of the Senate to investigate said charges against said officers and the facts attending the attempted introduction of said resolution, and the publication thereof, with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. White stated that this preamble and resolution were prepared and handed to him by request of one of the parties alluded to in the publication. After debate the preamble and resolutions were referred to the Evans Investigation Committee, which committee were directed to investigate the matter, and were clothed with the usual power. In the report of the committee, nearly at the close of the session, we find the result as follows:

"On the 29th day of February, 1872, a resolution and preamble in reference to a communication in the N. Y. Tribune of the preceding day, were referred to this committee. In that communication certain resolutions were quoted which reflected on John F. Hartranft, Auditor General, and Robert W. Mackey, State Treasurer, and made specific charges against them in their official capacity. It was made our duty to investigate these charges and ascertain the facts attending the attempted introduction of the said resolutions and the publication of the same. We have ascertained that the resolutions referred to in the communication to the Tribune were prepared by Strahan, counsel for Evans, Evans himself or Dr. William Payne, one of his bail, and that they jointly attempted to procure their introduction into and passage by the Senate and House of Representatives; THAT THE FACTS CHARGED IN THE RESOLUTIONS RECITED IN THAT COMMUNICATION ARE UNTRUE; that in pursuance of this inquiry we called before us all of the witnesses whose testimony seemed likely to throw any light upon the transactions have appeared in the New York Tribune and New York Sun [In the Sun the loan to Hartranft by Evans before he was known to be a defaulter was spoken of as a corrupt transaction.—COMMERCIAL.] reflecting on the officials before named, and other persons in privata capacity; that these have been based upon data furnished by Dr. William Payne or some other friend of George O. Evans, and that UPON CAREFUL INQUIRY OF WITNESSES UNDER OATH WE FIND THAT THE SPECIFIC CHARGES MADE IN SAID COMMUNICATIONS ARE NOT TRUE."

JAMES L. GRAHAM,
WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Committee on the part of the Senate.
D. N. WHITE,
A. C. NOYES,
B. L. HEWETT,
J. D. HANCOCK,
R. A. McCONNELL,
Committee on the part of the House.

It remains to be said only that Senator Wallace, the distinguished Democrat, not only signed, but wrote the above perfect vindication of Gen. Hartranft.

[To supply the demand for the following articles we print them from previous issues.]

THE OPPOSITION TO HARTRANFT.

Yerkes, Evans and Forney, the Leaders—Look at Them!

The affidavit of Yerkes, the penitentiary convict, whose testimony would not be worth a straw, even if he had not been convicted of perjury as well as stealing; the theft of Evans, who is out of the penitentiary from the want of no effort by Hartranft; and the paper of Forney, the self-convicted participant in the loot, constitute the platform of the opposition to Gen. Hartranft. And these are the leaders whom the voters of the State are to follow, so that Reform may triumph!

Yerkes is in the penitentiery; Evans, though he has barely escaped from a lodgment there, is an undisputed thief; and Forney stands on the record confessing to having had a share of the "swag." They who like the leaders should fall into line, and never cease to cry, "Down with Hartranft! Up with Buckalew!"

The public is already familiar with the offence that put Yerkes in the penitentiary. It knows all about the Evans swindle, as well as the efforts of Hartranft to send him to the penitentiary; but it may not know so well about Forney's connection with the swindle. So here is his own confession, made before the Senate Investigating Committee, together with the confession of Evans, his chief confederate, and the testimony of J. M. McClure:

John W. Forney, sworn:

Q. Subsequent to the passage of this resolution, and after the receipt of moneys by Mr. Evans from the United States Government, do you know anything or any division of the commission retained by Mr. Evans?

Ans. Nothing except—and I suppose that is the object of my being summoned here—my cousin D. C. Forney was ONE OF HIS SUB-AGENTS.

Q. Do you know of D. C. Forney having received any money?

Ans. I know that D. C. Forney received $5,000 from, I think, Mr. Evans, $2,000 OF WHICH HE HANDED TO ME, which I received, believing it to have been earned: he had been my business man for ten or twelve years in Washington, at the head of the Chronicle, and when he received this $5,000 he handed me $2,000, believing it to have been earned, an opinion which has been subsequently confirmed by the judgment of your local courts.

Q. When was this $5,000 received by D. C. Forney?

Ans. Some time last summer.

Q. From whom?

Ans. I think from Mr. Evans; I don't know.

Q. Of that $5,000 he retained $3,000 and handed you $2,000?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Q. Upon what account was it handed to you?

Ans. Well, sir, I suppose BECAUSE OF OUR RELATIONS; CERTAINLY NOT BECAUSE OF ANY SERVICES I RENDERED; I rendered none.

Mr. Forney places too modest an estimate upon his "services," as we shall see.

George O. Evans, sworn:

Q. Do you know who recommended you to Governor Geary, or through what means you became appointed State Agent?

A. I think I am indebted to Col. J. W. Forney, MORE THAN ANY OTHER MAN, for the indorsement to the Governor, and perhaps also to several gentlemen with whom I have no personal acquaintance, but who were persuaded from THE RECOMMENDATION OF COL. FORNEY that I was a proper person to be appointed agent.

Q. Did any one else give you a note to Gov. Geary?

A. No, sir.

J. M. McClure being sworn:

Q. Had you any conversation with Wien Forney about April, 1871:

Ans. Yes, sir, I had; if the committee will permit me to refer to some notes I will be obliged (witness refers to memorandum). * * * * I went into the State Library one day, about April 12th, I think, 1871, and Mr. Forney I think had a letter in his hand at the time; I am not certain about that; at any rate he informed me that he had just learned in some way that some military claims had been collected; he did not seem to have any definite knowledge of it at that time, but he had learned that $5,000 had been set apart for the State Guard.

* * * * * * *

At the same time Mr. Forney informed me that he had learned, either from this letter or some other source, that there was an agreement of some kind DRAWN UP AT THE TIME THIS RESOLUTION WAS PASSED, and named certain sums which he had been informed were set apart; one was this $5,000 to the State Guard, another $10,000 to the Philadelphia "PRESS," another $10,000 to the Washington "CHRONICLE."

Now, what followed? Hartranft caused Evans's arrest, pursued him to the last resort, and urged an investigation by the Legislature, whereby Evans, Forney and the rest of the gang were exposed. Could it be expected that they and the Phila. Press would not oppose him? On the other hand, can it be posible that they will have honest Republican followers?

"LOOK AT THE OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS."

The Pittsburgh Post very properly proposes to "look at the official documents" to ascertain the truth or falsity of the reports designed to injure Gen. Hartranft before the public. We accept the proposal and will freely abide the result. The report of Senator Wallace, and distinguished Democrats, in the Evans case, is the document which the Post consults, but is able to find nothing that is not favorable to Hartranft. In only one instance is Gen. Hartranft named or referred to, and that is done in this language:

"In March, 1872, Evans presented to the Auditor General a letter from the Governor requesting him to place these vouchers under his (Evans's) charge for collection from the United States. Auditor General Hartranft refused to do so for a time, but in view of the necessity for prompt action under the act of Congress he finally consented. He declined to give them to him at a commission of ten per cent., but made a special agreement for an equitable compensation to be fixed by Hartranft. The claims were then taken in charge by Evans and his clerk, Dr. Trimble, and prepared for filing and settlement."

Here Senator Wallace and the entire committee testify that Gen. Hartranft declined to give Evans the ten per cent. commission. Evans was the regular State Agent, appointed by the Governor under the authority granted by the Legislature. He had been abundantly vouched for, and no breath of suspicion had been heard concerning his transactions. It is doubtful whether Gen. Hartranft, as auditor General, could have refused to recognize him as the State Agent or disregarded the request of Gov. Geary to furnish the vouchers. It is to his eternal credit that he did hesitate about granting the request of the Governor to do so, and it is the highest evidence in his favor—and Senator Wallace and the entire committee meant so to be understood—that he "declined to give the vouchers to him at a commission of ten per cent., but made an agreement for an equitable commission." This is the sum-total of General Hartranft's connection with Evans, and it is as clear as the sun at uncloudy noonday that had the business been entrusted to him the State would have suffered no loss. From first to last it was in other hands, and by legislative authority. If it was abused and the State suffered loss, no honest man will pretend the blame attaches to Gen. Hartranft. The correctness of his share in the business is distinctly certified to by Senator Wallace and the committee.

But let us "look at the official documents" furthur: The Committee was directed by a resolution of the Senate "to inquire into the truth or falsity of representations made by correspondents of New York Tribune and Sun, wherein the slanders now retailed against Gen. Hartranft were made. The Committee performed its duty faithfully, and here is the report, signed by Senator Wallace and the entire Committee:

"On the 29th of February, 1872, a resolution and a reference to a communication in the New York Tribune of the preceeding day were referred to the committee. In that communication certain resolutions were quoted which reflected on John F. Hartranft, Auditor General, and Robert W. Mackey, State Treasurer, and made specific charges against them in their official capacity. It was made our duty to investigate these charges and ascertain the facts attending the attempted introduction of the said resolutions and the publication of the same. We have ascertained that the resolutions referred to in the communication in the Tribune were prepared by Strahan, counsel of Evans, Evans himself or Dr. William Payne, one of his bail, and that they jointly attempted to procure their introduction into and passage by the House of Representatives and Senate; THAT THE FACTS CHARGED IN THE RESOLUTIONS RECITED IN THE COMMUNICATION ARE UNTRUE; that in pursuance of this inquiry we called before us all of the witnesses whose testimony seemed likely to throw any light upon the transactions charged; that several communications have appeared in the New York Sun and the New York Tribune reflecting upon the officials before named and other persons in a private capacity; that these have been based upon date furnished by Dr. William Payne, or some other friend of George O. Evans: AND THAT ON CAREFUL INQUIRY OF WITNESSES UNDER OATH WE FIND THAT THE SPECIFIC CHARGES MADE IN THE SAID COMMUNICATIONS ARE NOT TRUE."

A more complete vindication than is this of Gen. Hartranft neither himself nor his friends could desire.

But the Post quotes from the testimony of Evans himself; but not one word reflecting in any manner on Gen. Hartranft. The public should understand that Evans was acting pursuant to an appointment from the Governor; that the business was wholly transacted by and between themselves; that Gen. Hartranft as soon as it was known that Evans was a defaulter caused proceedings to be instituted against him, which he, with Treasurer Mackey, pushed to the last extremity, and finally urged the investigation. Did this show complicity with Evans, fear of consequences, or anything whatever that was improper? Is it not the best proof that there could be that he was in no manner complicated, was intent solely on doing his duty and that he did it faithfully and fearlessly? Let reasonable men answer for themselves.

But Evans's testimony is on record. This man Evans, could he have done so, would hove blasted Gen. Hartranft, for it was he who was on his track. The motive was present with him the opportunity was afforded him; but desperate as was the strait in which he had been placed by Gen. Hartranft, he was compelled to testify, and did testify. "I NEVER PAID A DOLLAR TO ANY STATE OFFICIAL." But he referred to a lone of $7,000 made to Gen. Hartranft nearly a year before, and this is harped upon by Gen. Hartranft's enemies as proof of complicity with Evans, notwithstanding that he was all the time pushing Evans to the wall, and doing his utmost to make him either disgorge or go to the penitentiary.

Now, the history of this $7,000 transaction is simply this. Early in 1871, Gen. Hartranft applied to a Philadelphia banker for a loan of six or seven thousand dollars—which, in passing we will observe, he would hardly have done were he, as his enemies intimate, having the free use of the State's money—which in the state of the money market it was not convenient for the banker to make. This he communicated to Gen. Hartranft, saying at the same time that he would endeavor to have him accommodated. The banker knowing Evans, and that he had a balance to his account, the money was obtained from him. The only previous intercourse between Hartranft and Evans was that detailed in the quotation from Wallace's report above, and Evans's irregularities were not then known. As soon as Gen. Hartranft heard of them he sought Evans in Philadelphia, and without pausing long enough to permit him to go for the due bill paid him the money, principal and interest, taking a receipt therefor. The business was virtually with the banker, and there is no phase or coloring in the transaction that reflects in the least possible degree on Gen. Hartranft. This whole conduct was straight-forward and correct. Probably there might be found not less than a dozen to whom Evans lent money—the money which ought to have been in the State Treasury, and would have been had the Legislature confided the business to Gen. Hartranft's hands—and who might, with equal propriety, be charged with complicity with Evans's fraud.

The naked truth is, Gen. Hartranft's acts, official and private, will bear the light of day. Yerkes, the swindling broker and penitentiary convict, and Evans—who is even more guilty and has thus far escaped the penitentiary through no fault of Gen. Hartranft—for he has pursued him from pillar to post, are the very ones who have breathed the slightest suspicion against him. Yerkes probably expected to earn a pardon in case Gen. Hartranft was defeated and Buckalew elected, and Evans, after all, was forced to vindicate Gen. Hartranft by declaring that he "never paid a dollar to any State official."

With the Post and all enemies of Gen. Hartranft we say, "look at the official documents."

NAILING A LIE.

"We have shown by the testimony of Yerkes, the Philadelphia broker, who was the active member of the firm, and through whom Hartranft, in conjunction with Mackey, operated in speculating with the public funds, that Yerkes 'paid Hartranft various amounts of money from stock speculations with money deposited with this deponent by the State Treasurer at the instance of said Hartranft.' And to make the charge entirely definite and explicit, Yerkes further swears that on the 20th of December, 1870, 'he paid John F. Hartranft $2,700, which sum was derived from profits on purchases of loans of the Commonwealth and sale of same to the sinking fund, which sale was made on the 29th day of April, 1870.' It has been said, however, that Yerkes is now a penitentiary convict, and his statement and oath are unworthy of belief. But neither Hartranft nor the most reckless of his political friends has denied or dare deny that he was engaged in large speculations with Yerkes, of the same nature as those for which the latter was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment; and we know of nothing in his previous history and character which renders his varacity more questionable than his partner's."

The above is part of an editorial article in the Lancaster Express—a sample of many more in that paper, the Pittsburgh Post and other papers. We shall take it for granted that the editor of the Express is concientious and means not to print what is not true. He probably believes that neither Gen. Hartranft nor his friends have denied the Yerkes $2,700 statement. He probably does not know that it has been denied by Gen. Hartranft under oath, and that his testimony is corroborated by Mr. Taggart, cashier of the Treasury, and others knowing all the facts. With this editor it is probably a matter of belief without knowledge, otherwise he would not make statements utterly groundless. Now for the truth. Gen. Hartranft, examined by Senator Wallace, testified as follows:

Q. It seems that you have had transactions with C. F. Yerkes & Co.—state what they were.

A. It was a private account I had there. I had stocks on margin. I paid him interest and commissions, the same as he charged other customers, and the same as I paid to other brokers who had no State funds on deposit.

Q. Were these transactions connected directly or indirectly with your control of the public funds?

A. In no way whatever.

Q. Were the purchases made at any time with funds that were put there by the State Treasurer or under control of the State Treasurer?

A. No, sir.

Q. Your transactions were entirely of a private character?

A. Yes, sir; just as if there was no State deposit there.

Q. Was there any arrangement by which stocks, or bonds, or securities of any kind were carried on the State funds?

A. No. sir; I never owned any State securities.

Q. Securities of other kinds—corporation or otherwise—carried on State bonds?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you attempted, directly or indirectly, to control State funds by virtue of your request, and for your benefit?

A. No, sir.

Perhaps the editor of the Express is so particular and conscientious that he may be disposed to say that Gen. Hartranft was swearing in his own defense, and his testimony was weakened thereby. This is but natural, for persons whose whole case depends on the testimony of a penitentiary convict would be almost necessarily inclined to disbelieve the testimony of the public officer who sent him to the penitentiary for stealing the State's money. Therefore we will not ask the editor of the Express to retract what he has said on the testimony of Gen. Hartranft, but will introduce the testimony of Mr. John S. Hopkins, seven years the book-keeper of Yerkes & Co., as follows:

Q. Do you know of the account of John F. Hartranft?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. State what the nature of that account was.

A. Of a private nature entirely—in the shape of a deposit account.

Q. Were any of the moneys of the Commonwealth made use of in any form, and credited to that account?

A. Not at all—in no way.

Q. How were the accounts kept between Yerkes & Co. and Gen. Hartranft as to commissions?

A. We charged him interest and commissions, the same as other customers precisely.

Q. Were there or were there not any amounts carried to his credit from any account of the Commonwealth?

A. No, sir; none at all.

Q. Neither bonus nor other sums of any kind credited to his account?

A. No, sir; not to my knowledge.

We might produce more, but as the editor of the Express means to be honest, probably this will prove sufficient to cause him to retract his slanders against Gen. Hartranft, and commence to look into the truth. There has been an amazing amount of lieing, in face of the record, on this subject, and it is time that the liars should be confronted with the truth, and have a chance to clear themselves—if they can. The friends of Gen. Hartranft invite a scrutiny of the record—the more thorough the better.

Greeley Thunder Silenced.

Two or three weeks ago there appeared in the New York Sun an account of what purported to be a conversation between a correspondent of that paper and a former resident of Western Pennsylvania, in which the latter was represented as stating that Mr. W. H. Brown, the great coal producer of this city, had in the most positive manner declared his conversion to the Liberal party, his satisfaction with the disposition made of the tariff question by the Cincinnati Convention, and the fixed determination of himself and employees to cast their votes for Mr. Greeley's election. As was to have been expected, the entire account turns out to have been a gross fabrication. Mr. Brown not only repudiates the sentiment ascribed to him, and declares himself an earnest and consistent supporter of President Grant, but he also states that the thousands of men employed in his various works, in nine different States, are almost a unit in favor of the re-election of the President, "knowing full well, as they do, that he has been their constant friend." Still further to clinch the proofs of falsehood and forgery against the Sun, Mr. Brown's partners in the great iron works of Reise, Brown & Berger, at New Castle, an establishment which employs some two thousand men, state that their employees "are almost a unit for Grant and Wilson" and that while they know of but two Republicans who will vote for Greeley, they do know of several prominent Democrats who will refuse to do so under any circumstances whatever. Very pertinently they add that the enthusiasm in his favor is not among the voetrs, but chiefly with the irresponsible penny-a-liners in the employ of such sheets as the Sun. Perhaps the game was hardly worth the candle, and yet it is well that the lie has been exploded at the outset, since it is a fair specimen of the manner in which GREELEY thunder is manufactured throughout the country. But the paltry trick won't win.—Pittsburg Commercial.

IT is position, and not possession that renders us happy.

A WORD TO MEN OF PRINCIPLES.

To those, says the Toledo Blade, who follow Mr. Horace Greeley out of the Republican party from selfish or splenetic motives, we have nothing to say. Argument would be wasted upon them. But to those who may be inclined to give Mr. Greeley credit for honesty of principle in his recent movements, we wish to have a few words of plain talk. We ask them to take a calm and candid look at a few of Mr. Greeley's antecedents to be convinced that he is not that self-sacrificing, devoted, guileless child, that many have taken him to be. Looking at the occurrences of a few years past in the light of recent events, we can see that his betrayal of the Republican cause was not the result of a sudden impulse, but of a set calculation, after the most complete and careful deliberation. We have now ample evidence that his designs of treachery to and disruption of the Republican party have been preparing for years. No one need be told that Mr. Greeley has been often chagrined and disappointed that his political associates did not bestow upon him the offices and honors he has coveted. His disruption of the close relations subsisting between himself and Mr. Seward was for the avowed reason that the latter had not recommended him for political promotion. Twice, since the formation of the Republican party, he has been a candidate for United States Senator. His biographer and eulogist, James Parton, records it as an amazing and disgraceful fact that neither the Whig nor the Republican party had sufficient gratitude to reward Mr. Greeley for his distinguished services by a seat in Congress. It is needless to add that no Administration, Whig or Republican, has ever met his recommendations or dictations rather, in regard to offices and measures, with that alacrity of compliance which would have been most gratifying to him. All this has been profoundly disgusting to him. He has often given voice to his complaints in this regard. We trace his disaffection through the past few years to this beginning.

We all remember his harsh criticisms on Mr. Lincoln's war policy. Sometimes, in Mr. Greeley's estimation, the good President's movements were too fast, at other times, much too slow. Things were never just to suit the editor of the Tribune. When Mr. Lincoln felt compelled to move carefully, the Tribune was for moving "On to Richmond!" When the President put the armies into the hands of Gen. Grant, and the rebel hosts were almost ready to cry out for terms, his voice was loud for conciliation and for making a treaty of peace with the chiefs of the Confederacy. When Gen. Grant succeeded to the Presidency he failed to offer Mr. Greeley a seat in the Cabinet. Even Andrew Johnson had offered him a first-class mission, but Grant had preferred another before him. The New York Legislature for the second time, refused him the United States Senatorship. Then he began courting his political opponents. He offered himself very officiously as bail for Jeff Davis. He was loud in his calls for amnesty to traitors. He made a trip to the South and returned to eulogize some of the leading traitors, and to condemn the emigrants from the North and from Europe who had gone to the South, as "carpet-baggers, thieves and scoundrels." He intimated that he could not commit himself to the Republican nominations, as he might want to oppose them. All these things taken together show a deliberate purpose to take revenge on his old associates for not properly recognizing himself. He has cast his old-time principles aside and become a traitor to the distinctive principles of his life-time. Why should any man, who is on principle a Republican, follow him?

THE Springfield Republican lets a small-sized cat out of the bag by causing it to be known that Forney, McClure and another "dined together the other day," when they "put down the figures that elected Greeley beyond a question." This is unexpected confirmation of the belief that has come to be generally entertained that Forney, run by McClure, is laboring in the interest of Greeley. Instead of declaring for Greeley out and out, his role is to labor to give Pennsylvania to the Democrats in October. McClure runs Forney as absolutely as ever an Irishman ran a wheel-barrow, and going for Buckalew is the role that he has selected for him in the game. Let friend Bowles be thanked for pulling off the last rag wherewith the shallow demagogue has sought to cover himself.—Pittsburg Commercial, July 9th.

[For the REPUBLICAN].

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—What is to be done with stray calves & pigs that are hardly worth the expense of wintering? I found, to my annoyance, a stray calf with mine last fall, sent word all round, expected it to be claimed and taken away by the owner without much trouble or expense. Have been troubled with a couple of stray pigs that eat with mine. These animals will not pay their keeping, much less advertisement, sale &c., Will you please notify the public that the owners can come and get these animals by paying part of the expenses.

I have also several calves & pigs for sale at reasonable prices.

A. S. TIPTON,
CURTIN TWP. June 1872.

THE Jersey Shore Herald says: "Whenever you hear a fellow bellowing about others being bought in politics, keep an eye on him. Ten to one he is ready for the first bargain that offers." Col. Seeley, your head is level there.—We detest that class of political blatherskites who are eternally bellowing like so many colicky bull calves about bribery and corruption in others merely to cry their own auction.

THE cathartics used and approved by the physicians comprising the various medical associations of this State are now compounded and sold under the name of Parsons' Purgative Pills

We copy the following from an exchange, which is important, if true:—Chronic diarrhœa of long standing, also dysentery, and all similar complaints common at this season of the year, can be cured by the use (internally) of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. We know whereof we affirm.

TIME and enlightened experience have shown that certain substances formerly used and relied on in medical practice, are unnecessary and dangerous; yet some of these substances have found their way into medical compounds. "Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters," however, contain nothing injurious, being composed exclusively of vegetable substances from California. For all disorders of the liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, and digestive organs, and for purifying the blood they are the most wonderful remedy known. 27-4t.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

BY ONE WHO KONWS.

A good sewing Machine I long have sought,
And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

READ! READ! READ!

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WHO ARE IN WANT OF A SEWING MACHINE.

The New Sewing Machine VICTOR has not its equal in the world for family sewing. It is made of the finest material and of most perfect finish, and no pains or expense is spared to make the Victor Sewing Machine, in all its points, fitted to meet the wants of every family in the land.

TWELVE GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY THE VICTOR:

1.—It is the only Lock-Stitch Machine that has its needle Self-Setting.
2.—All lost motion can be readily taken up in all its parts.
3.—The needle being Straight, and Self-Setting, much of the perplexity and trouble to new beginners is avoided, as the needle cannot be set wrong.
4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facility Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.
10.—The shuttle is carried on an independent table, which prevents its wearing out, and at the same time does away with oiling, thus avoiding greasing the work.
11.—It is simple in its construction, and the most inexperienced person can operate and regulate it.
12.—Its price is as low as any other first-class machine, and should be tried by all who want a good, reliable machine. This new machine can be seen at the large Ware Room, where all are invited to call and see it operate. Having confidence that the Victor will meet with public favor, we are willing, when parties desire to purchase, to send it to their homes on trial, with complete instructions how to use it. Every Machine is Warranted. Traveling Agents Wanted.

MRS. IRWIN'S BUILDING, ALLEGHENY St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

MID-AIR COMPROMISE

AN ELMIRA REMINISCENCE—HOW THE PRINCIPAL OF A COLLEGE WAS CAUGHT—HE SWEARS SECRECY AND IS RELEASED FROM A PERILOUS POSITION.

[From the Schuyler Co., N. Y., Democrat.]

Not many years ago, and not far from the city of Elmira, at a locality known as "the Female College," the circumstance we are about to relate took place. It seems that the Principal of the college over-heard a plan among a number of his young lady students for drawing a young gentleman up to one of the third story rooms "in a basket, at night," as no gentleman suitors were permitted to visit their college lady-loves, and see them alone, under the strict rules of the institution. The Principal acted accordingly; and at the appointed time was on the designated spot, and when the basket was let down, took the lover's place, gave the "signal twitch," and commenced going up towards Heaven, drawn by a trinity or two of angels. When two-thirds up the angel expectant, on looking down from the window, discovered to her horror and dismay, that instead of her lover, she had another man in the basket! and nearly frightened out of her wits, made the awful truth known to her fair helpers in mischief, with the pertinent inquiry of "What shall we do? What shall we do? Oh! girls, girls, what shall we do?" Whereupon one of their number, noted for her coolness and presence of mind in trying emergencies, said:

"Here you hold on to this rope; now do just as I tell you, and I'll take care of the man, no matter who he is, nor where he comes from."

Then taking out her pocket knife and opening it, she leaned out of the window and in a low but firm voice asked:

No response.

"I say, who are you there in that basket?" Do you hear? I have a knife in my hand, and unless you answer this in less than ten seconds, I will cut the rope,"

"Why, it's your Principal, don't you know me? Don't, for mercy's sake, cut the rope."

"Well, you are in a pretty fix. Professor, a pretty fix, indeed; hanging between heaven and earth, between life and death. What do you think ought to be done with you? A principal of a female college, who thus endeavors at night to clandestinely reach the room of a lady student, ought to be severely punished, and also exposed."

"Oh, I beg of you, not to harm me nor expose me; but let me down again carefully. and don't let the rope slip."

"Professor," said the shrewd beauty, "on one condition will we comply with your request."

"Name it! name it!"

"You must solemnly promise that none of us who have been engaged in this little romance shall be disciplined for it, and that you will make no mention of it to a living soul, while we are inmates of the college, with the understanding that we are to observe the same solemn promise. What say you?"

"I promise, solemnly promise."

"Very well. Hold up your right hand! You do solemnly swear that you will faithfully keep and observe that promise, so help you God!"

"I do."

"Enough, girls! He has taken the oath. Lower away."

"The Professor was soon carefully and safely landed once more on terra firma, greatly to his own relief and greately to the joy, no doubt, of the other party to the compromise; and he lived up to his oath. In after years, however, when time had absolved him from it, and the lover whose basket "monopolized" on that eventful night, had, as the story goes, married the girl-who on that occasion, was so "far above him"—the Professor used to tell the adventure to his particular friends, and laugh over it till the tears ran down his cheeks, as the most ludicrous scrape he ever got into in all his college life and as the the only one he was let off under an oath administered.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt, The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

AN APPEAL!

To Debilitated Persns,
To Dispeptics,
To Sufferers from Liver Complaint,
To those having no Appetite,
To those with broken down Constitutins
To Nervous People,
To Children Wasting Away,
To any with debilitated digesti'e Organs

Or suffering with any of the following Symptoms, which indicate Disordered Stomach or Liver.

such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach. Sour Fructations, Sinking or Fluttering at Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circustances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article! A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefitted by it, will most certainly be cheated.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

Hon. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

THAT
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

MARASMUS,
Or Wasting away of the Body.
REMEMBER
THAT
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassful. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

COL. W. W. BROWN.—Dear Sir.—I see my name announced as a candidate for Register.—It was done without my knowledge or consent. I do not wish to be a candidate for any office. If nominated and elected I could not serve.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday the 6th inst., Mr. Jno. Thompson, and the wife of Henry Thompson, was badly injured, by their horse running off and throwing them from the wagon. The horse frightened at the cars. Mrs. Thompson's head was badly cut. She was insensible until Monday at 3 o'clock P. M. Mr. Thompson was badly bruised and cut.

BILLS.—Nearly all of our subscribers have within the last three or four months received bills, showing the amount due us from each of them. Last week we sent bills to those receiving the REPUBLICAN at the Bellefonte P. O. Now, friends, we want you to be punctual. Walk up to our office at once and pay up and thus save cost. We must have our money.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Rebecca Myers of Boalsburg, relict of the late Jos. Myers met with quite a serious accident last Tuesday July 9th. She was picking cherries at no great height from the ground, when the limb on which she was standing and which, though large, was decayed—broke close to the body of the tree, precipitating her to the ground. It threw on her also a ladder, which fell upon her leg fracturing it near the ankle, causing the bone to protrude several inches. Several persons saw her fall, and Dr. Woods, who was near by rendered the necessary medical assistance. The lady, though not otherwise seriously injured, has suffered considerably since; but we hope is now in a fair way of recovery.

[For the REPUBLICAN.]

SINGING.—We were very pleasantly entertained, the other evening, for a couple of hours, by singing which was held in Musser's School House. The singing is certainly a grand success, and a credit to the persons taking part there in.

We understand the object is to improve the Sabbath School held at that place. The object is certainly a noble one; for what is there that will build up a Sabbath School and attract the young to a place of worship so much as good vocal music.

Here again we find our friend A. J. Swartz, leader. No wonder the singing is a success, with such an able, and energetic man as Andy at the helm.

F.

THE FOURTH.

THE CELEBRATION OF ST. JOHN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL ON THE FOURTH.

At 8 o'clock, A. M., on the morning of the Fourth, the grand bell of the church was heard calling its members together for a proper celebration of that memorable day—the natal day of American Independence. We need not pause here to give a history of this glorious day and the great and heroic deeds of the founders and fathers of this Republic; for with these every school boy in the country is familiar.

From the surrounding hills and vallies the people flocked into our town to join in the procession, which was formed at St. John's Church in the following order:

FIRST.

Heading the procession were three horsemen, wearing long sashes of "Red White and Blue," representing Columbus, Washington and Grant.

SECOND.

A large and beautiful American Flag made especially for the occasion, followed by 13 boys, dressed in red, white and blue, representing the 13 original States. The little fellows looked brave and beauiful and strongly evinced that they felt the dignity and significance of their position.

THIRD.

St. John's Temperance Society Banner worth $295,00. The society followed in regalia. How nobly they marched along. How truly they kept "step to the music of the Union." We could not suppress the exclamation, what a blessing is Liberty—"Equal and exact justice to all men!" What a blessing is sobriety, integrity, honor—all growing out of, or closely allied to, a life of temperance, intelligence, Godliness. This Society is not only an honor to St. John's Church; but to the town and country, and its members may well feel a just pride in their noble bearing and in the great work they are accomplishing for the cause of humanity, God and their church. The beautiful Flag which cost so much and which waved so gracefully and patriotically in the breeze was purchased by the members of this society, and is used by them upon all holiday parades; but never, we think, did it look so beautiful, with its trinity of colors, as upon the Fourth, when its silk folds, starry field and pure and unsullied stripes borne by strong arms, told in language too plain to be misunderstood, that it was the Nations Flag—the emblem of American Liberty—the patriots pride—the citizens protection, and that on this glorious Fourth of July it waved over 40,000,000 of American freemen and that the clanking of the slave chain was no where to be heard in all our vast domain.

FOURTH.

The Liberty Cornet Band, of Bellefonte, producing good music for the occasion. This Band has been organized but a short time since, and is, therefore, young and inexperienced; but we must do them the justice to say that they play well and need not be ashamed nor afraid to make their appearance and play upon any public occasion.

FIFTH.

First Sunday School Banner, white, beautifully ornamented and bearing the motto, "St. John's Sunday School, and followed by 19 young ladies; then the Goddess of Liberty, and then 19 more young ladies, all, representing the States of the Union.

SIXTH.

Second S. S. Banner, red, and handsomely ornamented with gold and white stars; then the Sunday School girls all dressed in white and wearing, red, white and blue sashes.

SEVENTH.

Third S. S. Banner, white, decorated very beautifully with red and blue stars and bearing the motto, "E Pluribus Unum." This Banner was followed by the ladies of the congregation.

EIGHTH.

The fourth S. S. Banner, with the motto, "Dulce pro patria Mori." (It is sweet, or honorable to die for ones country,) and followed by the Sunday School boys, all wearing rosettes of red, white and blue.

NINTH.

The fifth S. S. Banner, blue, with the motto, "July 4th, 1872." This Banner was followed by a two horse carriage handsomely covered with a very large American Flag, and in which sat Rev. McIlvaine, the pastor of the Sunday School, together with the orator of the occasion, Jas. H. Rankin, Esq.—closed the procession.

The officers and marshals wore long sashes and walked in their respective places along the line of procession.

The procession thus formed marched along Bishop St. to the residence of Jos. Schneli, and then countermarched to Allegheny St. along Allegheny St. to Linn St., down Linn to the pic-nic ground.

Arriving at the grounds J. H. Rankin, Esq., having been introduced by Rev. Father McIlvaine, read in a clear and distinct manner, the Declaration of Independence, and delivered a very fine oration, explaining the causes which compelled our "Fathers" to the separation from Great Britain.

During the day, all enjoyed themselves in the grove, as well as could be expected on an occasion like this. A free dinner was given to all the children. There was an abundance of refreshments on the grounds.

In the evening at 7½ o'clock, the line of procession was formed and all marched home, well pleased with the proceedings of the day. Arriving at the old stone church, three cheers were given for the American Republic; three cheers for Gen. Grant, the President of the United States; three cheers for the great State of Pennsylvania, and three cheers for Bellefonte.

Thus closed the celebration of St. John's Sunday School, Bellefonte, July 4th, 1872.

We hope, if we live to witness another Fourth, that we may behold the Union of all the Sunday Schools of our Borough, in one grand pic-nic in honor of Independence Day.

CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE COMING.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the great Kleckner & Co's circus and menagerie is coming. They will exhibit in Bellefonte on Saturday, July 20th. This world-renowned combination has traveled through all the principle cities in Europe and America, and wherever they have been they were received with unbounded enthusiasm and large audiences. In connection with the circus and menagerie will be presented a troupe of genuine Bedouin Arabs. This part of the performance alone would be worth the admission fee. They will also present the most accomplished corps of riders, leapers, acrobats and gymnasts ever before exhibited to the world. We advise all our country as well as town friends, to go and see this wonderful combination. The price of admission will be found in our advertising columns. The afternoon performance commences at 2 o'clock, and in the evening at 7½ o'clock, and the free outside exhibition of the ascension on the single wire to the top of the centre pole by M'lle Codona, will take place at 1 o'clock the wind and weather permitting.

THE LOST FOUND.—The pocket book advertised in our last issue as found in the Cars in Lock Haven, proved to be the property of W. C. Holahan, Esq., of Renova, Pa. It contained nearly four thousand dollars in notes and valuable papers, some of which were on very responsible parties, and being properly endorsed could have been negotiated almost anywhere, or at any Bank, had it not fallen into the hands of so worthy and honest a man as Danl. McBride of this place.

Mr. Holahan, is practicing law at Renova, and had been traveling in pursuit of Stolen horses, for two days and nights without sleep. He had just recovered the stolen horses, and being tired and weary fell asleep, when it is supposed, the pocket book worked out of his pocket into the car seat where it was found by Mr. McBride.

We are acquainted with both of these gentlemen; both bear high reputations for integrity and we are glad to see two honest men so well met. We would trust our pocket book with either of them.

For the REPUBLICAN.

SOME PECULIARITIES OF THE CICADA.

MR. EDITOR:

It is my purpose in this, the concluding article on the "Locusts"—as many people will persist in calling them—more particularly to notice some peculiarities deserving attention.

First, evidently, must be noticed

THEIR NUMBERS.

Insects, generally, are noted for the vast numbers which sometimes appear, but on account of its size and regular appearance, the Cicada is more closely observed and more easily impresses the mind that there are countless myriads of them. It is not intended by this remark to lower the estimate put upon their numbers. Millions on millions of them, for the past few weeks, have been emerging from the ground, sunning themselves on fence, bush, or tree, or flying through the air. This year, before bursting the shell, one could have scraped them up in some places by the handful, or gathered bushels in a small space. The ground, in certain spots, was so covered with them it was impossible to tread without crushing them.

Yet they are diminishing in numbers. As upon the Indians, so upon the Cicadas, has fallen the baneful influence of civilization. The plow has turned up their hunting grounds. The axe of the woodman has levelled their forests, and soon the time may come, when it too can be said of them, "Here and there a stricken few remain." Except in old untilled orchards, damp mellow woodlands or long neglected copses, even in the memory of this generation, their numbers have sensibly diminished.

Another well known peculiarity of the Cicada is its song, or voice, and yet its

VOCAL APPARATUS

Is but imperfectly understood. Its stridulous noise is made neither by mouth nor wings, nor the rasping of its legs against its wing cases as many suppose. Its organs of sound are as perfect, for their purpose, as human vocal organs. Lift up the wings of a male Cicada, and near their insertion you will see two convex circular membranes, white but crossed with narrow brown stripes. Under the microscope, these will be seen to be wrinkled or furrowed. Here are the instruments which produce the sound. Press upon them with the head of a pin, and at once you hear faintly the Cicada's tones, even though he may be dead. If an incision is made in the back of the Cicada close to these membranes, but so as not to injure them, each will be seen to be connected with a strong muscle, by the contraction of which the stiff dry membrane is crumpled, its elasticity causing it to return to its former shape, when the contraction is removed. Thus the quick alternate contraction and relaxation of these membranes by the muscles of the insect, cause the peculiar sound, just as does the crumpling of stiff paper or parchment by hand. The hollow abdomen acts as a sounding-board, and the two scales seen on the under part of insect, seem, by their opening and shutting, to perform the office of a swell. The sound itself is loud enough to be heard at the distance of a half mile or more, when made by numbers. The noise made by one individual consists of but two tones and may be represented by the syllables, ah-oo; the first prolonged a few seconds, sliding suddenly into the second.

THE OVIPOSITOR

Is so peculiarly constructed that I cannot but briefly notice it. It consists essentially of a long tube enclosed and protected by a sheath, in the grooves of which, on opposite sides, move two files or saws with the teeth standing outward. The operation of piercing a cavity in which to deposit the eggs is simple and curious. By the alternate up-and-down motion of these saws acting in their grooves, a puncture is made through bark and wood into the pith of the twig in which the eggs are deposited. These curious saws or files can readily be seen with a microscope of ordinary powers at the end of the ovipositor, or "sting" as it is usually called.

THE UTILITY OF THE CICADA,

Is a mooted question in many minds.—The Indians are said to have used them for food, and, indeed, could we overcome our repugnance to grubs and worms enough to taste them, we might find them, if taken when just emerging from the ground, delicious morsels.—Swine, chickens and birds, however, have not our aversion, but seek and swallow them with avidity, and grow fat upon them. The birds prefer them even to early cherries, which this year were comparatively untouched. Soap has been made of them, as before they cast their shell they are full of oily juices; and it is a wonder to me, that some Oil or Bitters has not thus far been extracted from them by some humane (?) individual "warranted to cure all the ills that flesh is heir to."

However little they affect mankind, we may be sure they fulfil their place in the economy of nature and like all creation, man excepted, are working out the will of Him who made them.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES

Has in no other country reached the enormous proportions it has assumed in the United States. This is owing to the vast extent of territory and the comparative thinness of population, which creates the necessity for some reliable remedy, that can be applied at once in the absence of professional medical aid.

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has for over ten years been regarded as

and is relied on in every emergency by thousands of families in every section of the country. It is not a fancy drink, composed of bad whisky, flavored with aromatics, to tickle the palate and minister to a depraved appetite, but is a carefully and scientifically prepared compound extract of Roots, Herbs and Barks, possessing great medicinal virtue. Its rare combination presents the most effectual remedy yet discovered for all diseases of the stomach, Liver Kidneys and Bowels. Sold everywhere at One Dollar per Bottle.
